2 Read Amy's blog! Complete the sentences with words from text!

In a family, people have often got the same eyes or hair – but have they got the same hobbies?

In my family, for example, my mum has got brown eyes and blonde hair. She likes books and music. My dad has got blue eyes and brown hair. His hobbies are music and computers. My brother, Max, has got blue eyes and blond hair. He likes computers and books. What about me? I've got my mum's brown eyes and my dad's brown hair. I like books and computers, but my favourite hobby is photography.

My parents haven't got a camera. They haven't got many photos, and photography is not one of their hobbies. So, who likes photography in my family? My grandad Paul. And he's a very good photographer. His photos are great! My grandad hasn't got brown eyes or brown hair, but we like the same things. Strange? Not really – 25 percent of the people in the UK like the same things as their parents, grandparents, or grandparents' parents!

How about you? Have you got the same hobbies as someone else in your family?

- 1 Max is Amy's
- 2 Amy'slike books.
- 3.....has got brown eyes.
- 4 Amy and her father have got the same.....
- 5 Amy's parents haven't got a
- 6 Amy and herhave got the same favourite hobby.
