

Simple Present: Positive and Negative

I. Change the positive sentences into negative sentences.

Example:

She drinks milk. → She does not drink milk.
(Or: She doesn't drink milk.)

1. I eat pizza every day.
2. You look like my mom.
3. She has blue eyes.
4. He wants to go to the zoo.
5. They have one million dollars.
6. We go to school on Saturdays.
7. The cat likes ice cream.
8. Dogs drink cola.
9. I finish my homework very quickly.
10. Zombies exist.

II. Change the negative sentences into positive sentences.

Example:

I do not fight monsters. → I fight monsters.

1. Ghosts do not scare me.
2. I do not have superpowers.
3. My brother does not look like a baby.
4. My sister does not steal my toys.
5. My mom and dad don't play Fortnite.
6. The dog doesn't sleep on my bed.
7. I don't want to be a ballerina.
8. We don't buy pizza every night.
9. The baby doesn't drive the car.
10. You do not play on your phone during class.

