

Lesson B It's on the corner.

A Look at the map. Complete the sentences. Use across from, between, next to, on, or on the corner of.

1. The grocery store is between the post office and the park.
2. The park is _____ the library.
3. The post office is _____ Third Avenue and Main Street.
4. The library is _____ the pharmacy.
5. The pharmacy is _____ Main Street.

B Look at the map in Exercise A. Match the questions with the answers.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| 1. Where's the coffee shop? | a. It's between the coffee shop and the library. |
| 2. Where's the library? | b. It's across from the post office. |
| 3. Where's the post office? | c. It's on the corner of Fourth and Main. |
| 4. Where's the pharmacy? | d. It's on the corner of Third and Main. |

C Complete the conversation.

Excuse me.	Oh, OK. Thanks.	Where's the library?
It's on the corner of Fourth and Main.	Sorry, I didn't get that.

A Excuse me. _____

B It's on the corner of Fourth and Main.

A _____

B _____

A _____

B You're welcome.