

Review

Personal Pronouns / Possessive Adjectives / Can I ...? or Can you...? / Prepositions of Time

① Personal Pronouns & Possessive Adjectives

Match the pronouns to the possessive adjectives. Choose the letter of the correct possessive adjective (a-g) to complete the box.

|         |                                |          |
|---------|--------------------------------|----------|
| 1. I    | <input type="text" value="F"/> | a. your  |
| 2. you  |                                | b. its   |
| 3. he   |                                | c. their |
| 4. she  |                                | d. his   |
| 5. it   |                                | e. our   |
| 6. we   |                                | f. my    |
| 7. they |                                | g. her   |

Recordá que los possessive adjectives van siempre antes de un sustantivo y nunca cambian (ni en plural ni en singular):

*This is my English book.
These are my books.*

② Complete the text with possessive adjectives.

I'm a new student here and this is classroom.

I sit next to Ruth, she's best friend.

This is desk. She has many things on it: a black pen, a yellow pencil and an orange eraser.

Maths teacher, Mr. Martin, is very nice. lessons are very interesting.

③ Can I... or Can you...? Choose the correct options.

| Question (Can I... or Can you...?) |                                 | Answer            | Permission or Request? |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------|------------------------|
| Can                                | explain that again, Mr. Martin? | Sure. No problem. |                        |
| Can                                | use your eraser, Ruth?          | Sure!             |                        |

④ Complete with prepositions of time.

- Is the ICT class Wednesday? → Yes, it is.
- What time is the break? → It's 10:30.
- When is Independence Day? → It's July.
- When is your birthday? → It's March 12th.