

Instructions: Drag and drop (arrastre y suelte) the phrases to complete the mini-conversations.

A. Majors / Education

Student 1: What did you study in college? Student 2: Sorry, _____ Student 1: Sure. I said, "What did you study in college?" Student 2: I am still in high school, but I'm interested in nurse. _____ How about you? Student 1: I studied, um... ah, I forgot the word! _____ Oh yeah. I studied systems engineering. Speaking of studying, do you think you're good at studying? . . .	Options: I mean, nursing. can you repeat the question? Give me a second...
--	---

B. Values

Student A: Do you think is important the...be...um, sorry. _____ Is it important to be honest? What do you think? Student B: _____ I think it's really important to be honest. Student A: Why is it important for you? Student B: _____ because if you're honest, people will trust you, and that creates strong relationships. Student A: I totally agree. _____ better to be honest. However, I sometimes tell white lies, like little lies, because I don't want to hurt the other person's feelings.	Options: In my opinion, it's Let me try that again. Personally, One reason why is
--	--

Next: Check your answers and then practice the conversations.

You can use your own information if you want.