

MODAL VERBS Form sentences in the tense given

PAST SIMPLE

She / not must / do her homework ...

They / may / believe ...

He / can / drink ...

PRESENT PERFECT

I / must / wash the dishes ...

She / not may / travel ...

We / can / ski ...

WILL FUTURE

You / must / cook ...

They / may / shout ...

He / not can / run faster ...

ASK FOR THE UNDERLINED PARTS – Mind the tenses!!!

Paul and Sarah always carry the shopping bags home.

...

Phil had to wash dad's car.

...

Last week Eric did his homework in the evening.

...

My friends tell me a lot of jokes.

...

Susan has bought a new dress because the old one was torn.

...

TENSES (incl. MODAL VERBS) Read the text carefully and fill in the correct tense.

Sarah-Anne is fifteen years old and (1) (attend) a Higher Technical College. Since the beginning of the new school years she (2) (must) learn a lot because there are some new subjects, such as mechanics, in this school. Every afternoon after school, Sarah-Anne (3) (not only do) her homework and she (4) (not only must) learn a lot, but she also (5) (practise) the piano for at least half an hour. So far she (6) (write) some good marks and that's why she (7) (may) do whatever she wants for the last couple of Saturdays.

Last Saturday, for example, Sarah-Anne (8) (may) spend all the afternoon with her best friend Tina. First, they (9) (go) window shopping in the city centre, then they (10) (drink) some hot chocolate in a coffee shop. While they (11) (sit) in the coffee shop, one of their friends (12) (enter) and (13) (sit) down next to them. Sometime later, they (14) (leave) the coffee shop together and (15) (decide) to go to the cinema. Unfortunately, they (16) (not can) watch the film they wanted to because it was sold out. That's why they (17) (return) to Sarah-Anne's house instead to watch a DVD.