Subject: Poetry Worksheet (Spelling Bee)

Section: Elementary

Do you know a Spelling Bee?

I know one well, and vow that she can spell the names of all the flowers whose sweet nectar she devours.

I took this Spelling Bee with me and brought her to a spelling bee.

I said, "This way the world can tell that you, the Spelling Bee, can spell!"

She spelled "Petunia." Quite divine!

And with "Dahlia" she did fine.

Then she missed both "Thigh" and "Thumb," but quickly spelled "Chrysanthemum."

So I found out that Spelling Bees cannot spell all words with ease.
For flower names, they spell each one,
but other words? They know none.
