

20TH CENTURY SPAIN

ALFONSO XIII

Match the words to their definitions:

The return of the Bourbon dynasty to power.	Militia
A system where the results of the elections were decided in advance to rotate power between the liberal and conservative parties and achieve political stability.	El Turno Político
A group of writers and intellectuals who wrote critically about Spain's politics.	Generation of '98
When a society moves away from traditional agriculture in rural areas to an industrial, urban life.	Autarky
The working class grouped together and formed unions to protect themselves and improve working conditions.	Modernisation
A group of soldiers made up of civilians with little or no training.	Labour movement
Groups of people from other countries who volunteered to help the Republicans.	Constitution of 1978
An economic policy of self-sufficiency. A country produces everything it uses without trading with any others.	International Brigades
It established Spain as a democracy by creating a constitutional monarchy and guaranteeing Spanish citizens' rights, like equality, freedom of expression and voting.	Restoration

