

Pre-Hellenic civilisations

Drag and drop

between eastern walled Ancient city Bronze kings disappeared trade settled

Minoan Crete and Mycenae were important civilisations in the Mediterranean.
These pre-Hellenic civilisations existed before Greece appeared:

- Minoan Crete. Minoan civilisation developed in Crete during the Age.
Crete had an important role in across the eastern Mediterranean.
Crete was ruled by powerful , including the legendary King Minos.
Knossos was its most important .
- Mycenae was another Bronze Age civilisation. In about 1400 BC, a northern people called the Achaean in the Balkans and built cities.
Mycenaean society was dominated by warriors, who were ruled by a king.
- The Dark Age. Mycenaean civilisation in about 1150 BC. We do not know much about the period the 11th and 9th centuries BC.