

Celebrations and Traditions

1. Read the descriptions about the different traditions and celebrations and write the number in the box next to the picture.

Dictionary
Joke: Chiste	Neighbours: Vecinos	Change: Cambio	Lovers: enamorados	Soul: Alma	Relative: Familiares
Prank: Broma	Held: Se lleva acabo	Parades: Desfiles	Presents: Regalos	Dead: Muerto	Sending: Enviando

	<input type="text"/>	1. April Fools' Day is a day celebrated in the United States on April 1. The day is marked by different jokes and pranks on friends, family members, enemies, and neighbours. The tradition started when there was a change in the Gregorian calendar.
	<input type="text"/>	2. The Día de las Glorias Navales is held in Chile on May 21st. Commemorates 2 naval combats, "Naval Combat of Iquique" and "Naval combat of Punta Gruesa". Every year this commemoration is celebrated with parades and flower ornaments in every city.
	<input type="text"/>	3. Valentine's Day or Saint Valentine's Day is a holiday celebrated on February 14th. In America and Europe, it is the traditional day on which lovers express their love for each other by sending Valentine's cards, presenting flowers, or giving presents to their beloved ones. The holiday is named after Saint Valentine of Rome in the year 496, replacing a pagan tradition.
	<input type="text"/>	4. On the Mexican holiday known as the Day of the Dead celebrated every year on November 1st and 2nd. Families welcome back the souls of their dead relatives for a small reunion that includes food, drink and celebration. It is a mixture of European and Latin American traditions to celebrate the dead.

1. Complete the chart using the information from the text.

Celebration/ Questions	Where is celebrated?	When is celebrated?	Why is celebrated?	How is celebrated?
April fool's day
Saint Valentine's day
Día de la glorias Navales
Day of the dead				