Not many of us had been to Rome and so we saw a very different environment _____. The houses were yellow, there were terracotta tiles on the floor outside the cafes and the most common transport was the moped. We got to our hotel, sorted out our rooms, unpacked and went out to dinner. The real Roman bit started with the trips round the Forum, Palatine Hill and the Colosseum _____. On our way back to the hotel we were given a guided tour of the Church of San Clemente, whose remains, _____, took us back to the level of Nero's Rome with its streets, alleys and the best preserved temple to Mithras in the world.

- A. reaching down 50 metres below the modern street
- B. which would have made the group gasp in awe
- C. from the one we live in
- D. where the cruel world of Roman entertainment was mixed with the amazing technology below stage
- E. so it didn't matter
