

→ Watch the video¹ and listen to the song by Jack Johnson.

<https://youtu.be/d1mFymbRmv4>

1) Order the sentences: "The 3 R's"

Yes it is, it's a magic number

And the eighteenth letter in the alphabet is R

Three it's a magic number

And three times six is eighteen

Because two times three is six

- a) _____
b) _____
c) _____
d) _____

2) Tick the best option in bold.

We've got three R's we're going to talk about today

We've got to LEARN / KNOW to Reduce, Reuse, Recycle (4 x)

If you're going to the MARKET / MALL to buy some juice

You've got to bring your own BAGS / TRASH and you learn to REDUCE / INCREASE your waste

3) Match the beginning to the end of the sentence:

- (a) And if your brother or your sister's
(b) You could try them on
(c) Reuse,
(d) And if the first two R's
(e) And if you've got to

- () don't work out
() make some trash
() before you buy some more of those
() got some cool clothes
() we've got to learn to reuse

4) Fill in the gaps with the missing words:

_____ throw it out

Recycle, we've got to learn to _____,

We've got to _____ to Reduce, _____, Recycle (4x)

5) Sing along:

Because three it's a magic number
Yes it is, it's a magic number
3, 3, 3
3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 21, 24, 27, 30, 33, 36
33, 30, 27, 24, 21, 18, 15, 12, 9, 6, and
3, it's a magic number