

1. Fill in the gaps using the words in brackets in the correct form.

1. To become a smoke jumper one should be even _____ (good) prepared physically than any other firefighter.
2. He seems to be _____ (enthusiastic) person in our group.
3. He is _____ (strange) man I've ever met.
4. Women seem to be _____ (patient) than men. They began to shout as soon as they are hurt.
5. The rescue team couldn't see anything _____ (far) than 100 metres because of the smoke.
6. The train from Ryazan is _____ (fast) than the local one. Take it.
7. Whose house is _____ (close) to yours?
8. To my mind, 'Google is _____ (popular) among the search systems in the world.
9. I don't think ghost hunting is _____ (serious) than tornado chasing.
10. He hasn't explained to me _____ (complicated) part of the rule.

2. Choose the appropriate forms of the adjectives to complete the sentences. In some cases both forms are possible then choose the best one.

1. What's the _____ place you've been to?
2. There was a row of small shops on the _____ side of the street.
3. Are there many colleges of _____ education in Wales?
4. Your house is the _____ from here.
5. For _____ instructions see Mr. Lockwood.
6. That's a _____ reason to make them leave the office.
7. Glasgow is _____ away from London than Manchester.
8. I can't tell you what _____ explanation she could offer.
9. There is no _____ information about their arrival.
10. Have you got any _____ questions?

Winter in Kolomna