From: Julie

To: Ben

Hi Ben,

I'm writing to tell you about a car boot sale which will be held in our Communal Park Greens this Friday afternoon. I saw a poster in the street about it and told my mum, who immediately liked the idea. She told dad, my brother Robby and me to clear up the garage and the basement. We did and we found so much stuff that we no longer use! My dad wasn't happy about the whole idea from the very start. First, he complained that the seller's space is expensive. The real problem started when we found his old tennis racket (he no longer plays because of a bad knee) and he didn't want to sell it. Anyway, we've got two bikes, mine and Robby's which are too small for us. Robby's will go but I've promised to give mine to my cousin, Annie. Plus, we've got lots of smaller stuff like Robby's old skates or my rollerblades.

Look, why don't you come there on Friday? Maybe you can find something useful at a good price. Let me know if you're going to be there.
