

Primary 5/6

Week 15

The Write Tribe

WAYS TO BEGIN SENTENCES

Rearrange the sentences below.

1.

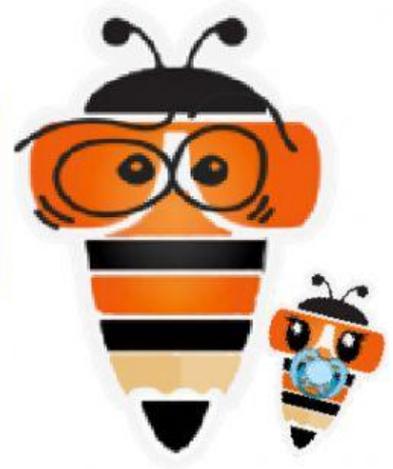

SUBJECT                      VERB                      OBJECT

ate                      James                      a cake

2.

weekends                      love                      I

These are as simple as ABC ! Even my baby brother can write better than that ! There must be OTHER ways to start a sentence !

Yes !
Here are the 3 alternate ways to begin a sentence.

You can begin with

Present Participles

Emotions

Adverbs

Present Participles

Verb

ing

It describes an action in progress

E.g The children are playing in the playground.

It can be used to describe an action being done in the present or the past.

E.g They were studying in the classroom when the earthquake happened.

Convert the following actions (verbs) by adding - ing

1. Reach		6. Shiver
2. Run		7. Sigh
3. Laugh		8. Yelp
4. Slither		9. Clench
5. Snarl		10. Squelch

Beginning a sentence with a present participle means putting the focus on the ACTION instead of the PERSON performing the action !

Regular sentence

Darla picked seashells as she walked on the beach.

The focus is on the PERSON

Sentences beginning with a PRESENT PARTICIPLE.

Walking on the beach, Darla picked seashells.

The focus is on the ACTION
which is walking on the beach.

Click the sentences that begin with a PRESENT PARTICIPLE

1a. Clara picked a packet of milk as she walked past the dairy section.

1b. Walking past the dairy section, Clara picked a packet of milk.

2a. Clapping their hands in unison, everyone cheered for Candice.

2b. Everyone cheered for Candice by clapping their hands in unison.

3a. Vera hugged her knee and groaned in pain.

3b. Groaning in pain, Vera hugged her knee.

4a. Running as fast as lightning, Brock boarded the train.

4b. Brock boarded the train by running as fast as lightning.

5a. Sam flipped through the examination booklet while sweating profusely.

5b. Sweating profusely, Sam flipped through the examination booklet.

Rewrite the following sentences. Start them with a PRESENT PARTICIPLE.

1. Ellen heard someone call her name as she reached for the door.

---

---

2. I managed to arrive in the nick of time because I ran as fast as lightning.

---

---

3. Peppa sent mud flying everywhere when she squelched about in the muddy puddles.

---

---

4. She leaned back on the rocking chair and sighed heavily.

---

---

5. Buddy grabbed her injured foot while she yelped in pain.

---

---

Emotions

Beginning a sentence with an emotion means putting the focus on the EMOTION instead of the PERSON or the ACTION !

Regular sentence

Jane stomped out of the room because she was furious.

The focus is on the PERSON

Sentences beginning with an EMOTION.

Furious, Jane stomped out of the room.

The focus is on the EMOTION which is the word, furious.