

---

Harriet Tubman: Guide to freedom

---

I. True/False. Write T for a true statement. Write F for a false statement.

1. Harriet Tubman described the house where Thomas Garrett lived told slaves about the store where Thomas used to work. _____
2. A whole wall swung open, and behind it was a room where Thomas Garrett could hide fugitives. _____
3. The night the slaves reached the next stop, a farm that belonged to a German. _____
4. The German farmer fed the slaves in the lamplit kitchen, their faces glowing, as he offered food and more food. _____
5. It was hard to exchange the security offered by that clean, warm house for the darkness and the cold of December night. _____

II. Multiple choice. Click on the correct answer

1. On the room's wall there were shelves filled with small boxes, boxes of shoes, so that someone would never guess that:
  - a. The wall actually opened
  - b. The wall actually closed
  - c. That room actually opened

2. The slaves spent the night in the warm kitchen, they really slept all that night and until:
  - a. Dusk the next day
  - b. Sunset the next day
  - c. The noon the next day

3. But they had been tired too long, hungry too long, afraid too long, one of the slave suddenly cried out in despair, Let me go back, it is better to be:
  - a. A slave than to going like this in order to be free
  - b. A slave than to dying like this in order to be free
  - c. A slave than to suffer like this in order to be free

4. Harriet Tubman gave the impression of being a short, muscular, indomitable woman:
  - a. Who could be defeated
  - b. Who could never be feared
  - c. Who could never be defeated

5. Even on this trip, Harriet Tubman fell asleep in the woods, the runaways did not steal the gun as they might have:
  - a. And come back by themselves
  - b. And set off by themselves
  - c. And set kill her