

It's my job

1 Listen and choose the correct information:

Where is he now?

|         |         |              |
|---------|---------|--------------|
| The USA | The UAE | Plant        |
| Inside  | Outside | Control room |

2 Listen again and choose the right options.

|  |                       |                         |
|--|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| Khaled is from...                          | UAE                   | EU                      |
| He likes his job because...                | everyday is the same. | everyday is different.  |
| Today, he is...                            | inside the plant.     | outside the plant.      |
| There are ... technicians in the plant.    | 5                     | 3                       |
| Two technicians are from...                | US                    | India                   |
| They use ... to speak to the control room. | radios                | telephones              |
| He likes...                                | meeting new people.   | practising his English. |

