

THE RETURN OF IMRAY

Rudyard Kipling

Summary

Put the sentences in order

The sentences A-L. of the summary of story are in the wrong order.
Put them in the right order and number them 1-12.

- A I ran into Strickland's room. He just laughed at me.
- B But Bahandur Khan did not want to be hanged so he put his foot on the poisonous snake and the snake bit him.
- C I went to bed. I thought I heard someone calling my name.
- D The third evening I was there, we saw two snakes hanging from the ceiling. Strickland climbed up.
- E He discovered that one of his servants named Bahandur Khan had killed him. Imray had complimented his child and then his child had died. So, he believed that Imray was a wizard.
- F He then pushed something large down. It was Imray's body. A snake fell too, and Strickland broke its back.
- G I came to stay with Strickland for a few days. His house had belonged to a man named Imray who had disappeared for some unknown reason.
- H After I arrived, Strickland went to work.
- I That night Strickland's dog Tietjens refused to come inside.
- J Later, my servant told me that somebody was waiting for me.
- K Strickland decided to question Imray's servants.
- L I went into the living room, but there was nobody there.