

WORKSHEET 2 - WAYS OF GENDER INEQUITY

Direction 1: write the number of the expressions in front of the correct definition of the way of gender inequity (see the example # 3)

1. Professional obstacles
2. Pay differences
3. Intimate partner violence
4. Teenage pregnancy
5. No access to education
6. Cultural role and customs
7. Household work/care of children
8. Child marriage

Definitions of ways of gender inequity	Female adolescents becoming pregnant between the ages of 13-19.
	It refers to situations where domestic work is performed by women. It includes caring children
	How we are expected to act, speak, dress, groom, and conduct ourselves as women and men.
	Social barriers, such as unequal gender norms, child marriage and early pregnancy severely reduce the likelihood of girls staying in school.
	This describes physical, sexual, or psychological harm by a current or former partner or spouse.	3
	Men in higher paid industries and women in lower paid industries.
	Child marriage refers to any formal marriage or informal union between a child under the age of 18 and an adult or another child.
	The practice of work in many professional positions reduces women's access to the highest paid jobs because of the imbalance in family care responsibilities.

Direction 2: analyze the cases and write a way of gender inequity for each one. For example:

1. In India, many children must marry an adult person child marriage
2. A twelve-year-old girl is pregnant _____
3. My best friend is worried because his father hit his mother last night. _____
4. My grandmother had to care her children while she cleaned the house. _____
5. My aunt couldn't go to school when she was a girl _____
6. My parents work, my dad earns more than my mom _____
7. Many women in the world can't get a higher position in their jobs because of big responsibilities as household work _____
8. Female genital mutilation is the ritualistic removal partial of complete by a traditional circumciser, in the middle East, Asia and Africa _____

¡No escriba en
mayúscula sostenida!