

In this section, you are going to hear a story about a very lucky – or unlucky - person. Your task will be to write one word in each of the gaps below using the exact words that you hear in the recording.

✓ Sam is an unemployed bus driver .

1. The first thing he had ever won in his life was a(n) _____
_____ he won in a school raffle.
2. The Big Cube is a California state _____ .
3. The first thing contestants have to do in the television show is to guess which _____ a spinning _____ will stop on.
4. The first variable referred to how many cars would run the _____
_____ at a crossroads in six hours.
5. The second variable referred to how many times an average American teenage boy would change TV _____ in a three-hour period.
6. While the number of traffic offences in the first variable was only 76, the average teen clicked _____ times.
7. As he was crossing the street talking excitedly on his _____
_____, he got hit by a sports car.
8. The amount of Sams's _____ was $110,000.
9. The _____ for the sports car's owner sued
Sam for the sum of $9,000.

<http://www.rong-chang.com/qa2/>

Photo by Victoria Pickering on flickr