

Module 2

TKT practice task 24 (See page 245 for answers)

For questions 1-7, look at the incomplete statements about adapting coursebook materials and the three options for completing them listed A, B and C.

Two of the options complete the statements correctly. One option does NOT.

Choose the letter (A, B or C) which does NOT complete the statement correctly.

- 1 If the material is too young for the age of the learners, we can
 - A replace cartoons with photographs.
 - B find more motivating texts.
 - C introduce more kinaesthetic activities.
- 2 If the material is culturally inappropriate, we can
 - A make the material more challenging.
 - B adapt unsuitable tasks.
 - C use a different context for presenting.
- 3 If the grammar revision in the book isn't enough for the learners, we can
 - A write some extra material.
 - B change the interaction patterns.
 - C adapt exercises from earlier units.
- 4 If the practice material is too easy for some students, we can
 - A find extension or supplementary exercises.
 - B provide lists of key words.
 - C find new texts on other topics.
- 5 If there isn't enough controlled practice material, we can
 - A re-use the same material.
 - B extend exercises in the book following the same pattern.
 - C use the pictures in the book for further practice.
- 6 If the practice material is presented without any clear context, we can
 - A add visuals.
 - B suggest that learners consult a dictionary of culture.
 - C add a sentence or two to provide background.
- 7 If there isn't enough reading skills development, we can
 - A set up a class library of graded readers.
 - B ask students to read the texts aloud.
 - C find an appropriate supplementary skills book.
