

TKT practice task 24 (See page 245 for answers)

For questions 1-7, look at the incomplete statements about adapting coursebook materials and the three options for completing them listed A, B and C.

Two of the options complete the statements correctly. One option does NOT.

Choose the letter (A, B or C) which does NOT complete the statement correctly.

- 1 If the material is too young for the age of the learners, we can
  - A replace cartoons with photographs.
  - B find more motivating texts.
  - C introduce more kinaesthetic activities.
- 2 If the material is culturally inappropriate, we can
  - A make the material more challenging.
  - B adapt unsuitable tasks.
  - C use a different context for presenting.
- 3 If the grammar revision in the book isn't enough for the learners, we can
  - A write some extra material.
  - B change the interaction patterns.
  - C adapt exercises from earlier units.
- 4 If the practice material is too easy for some students, we can
  - A find extension or supplementary exercises.
  - B provide lists of key words.
  - C find new texts on other topics.
- 5 If there isn't enough controlled practice material, we can
  - A re-use the same material.
  - B extend exercises in the book following the same pattern.
  - C use the pictures in the book for further practice.
- 6 If the practice material is presented without any clear context, we can
  - A add visuals.
  - B suggest that learners consult a dictionary of culture.
  - C add a sentence or two to provide background.
- 7 If there isn't enough reading skills development, we can
  - A set up a class library of graded readers.
  - B ask students to read the texts aloud.
  - C find an appropriate supplementary skills book.
