

Use your knowledge of the stories and the characters to help you match the adjectives to the definitions below.

|                       |                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. brave [adj] | a.  someone who has very little money                                               |
| 2. good [adj]  | b.  someone who is not kind and hurts people or animals                             |
| 3. cruel [adj] | c.  someone who has a lot of money                                                  |
| 4. rich [adj]  | d.  someone who is kind and helpful and does things that are right                  |
| 5. poor [adj]  | e.  1 someone who will do something they have to do, even though they may be scared |

There are many adjectives in the stories in this unit. Try and use some of them to describe the characters in your story.