

Join the word with its definition

Steal	It means to steal from a building, a home etc.
Burglar	When you take unlawfully what belongs to someone else.
Rob	The person who robs is a
Stealer/thief	The person who breaks into houses to steal things is a
Burgle	The person that steals is a
Robber	When you Unlawfully take something from its owner

Drag the right word into the gap.

ROBBED / STOLE / BURGLED / STOLE / ROB / STEAL / BURGLED / ROBBED

He told the children it was a great sin to Apples from his orchard.

The man said it hadn't been his intention to anyone.

We were at a previous house.

The thieves two laptops and a computer.

Every hour of every day 98 homes are and seven homes are hit by fire.

Police have appealed for help in tracing two men who two teenagers after talking to them.

If you knocked someone on the head and their wallet you would be punished.

The apothecary, Harold, was of some herbs and balms.