

C1.2 Listening PracticeName:

You will hear part of a radio talk about an institution that helps addicts.
Complete the sentences with a word or phrase.

1. The speaker's name is Seaworthy.
2. Thorndale clinic is located on the of Bristol.
3. The problem of addiction has commonly increased in the last years.
4. Thorndale has shown a remarkable success treating patients even where there are more than fifty clinics in the
5. They use a system –not so new– called which consists of a course where abusers of alcohol and will indulge in their own addictions.
6. It is believed that a strong sense of is induced in the patients through this course.
7. This process has to be repeated three times a day in order to develop hatred towards the addiction.
8. A lot of people find this course to complete and give up and go back to their old habits.
9. Smokers are said a cigarette again at the end of the course.
10. Because of the that is involved in alcohol abuse, the treatment is different.
11. Trained monitor patients who are encouraged to drink excessively in a bar setting.
12. Next day, these patients are shown a video with their from the previous night.
13. These patients feel pretty by those forgotten scenes.
14. It is believed that the 10-day course is all it takes to change a patient's to drinking.