

Click on the wrong adverb in each sentence. The adverb(s) that do(es)n't make sense.

1. Luckily/ Amazingly/ Undoubtedly our fall was broken by a giant bed of mint bushes, so no bones were broken.
2. It was a very disappointing experience so in the end/ at that point/ after, we had to return one day early from the field trip.
3. My friend was taking very slowly/ forever/ a while to bring the material.
4. Amazingly/ luckily/ strangely, they were angry at me for trying to help them!
5. It was such an amazing place, we both wished we could stay there at this point/ forever/ in the end.
6. As for/ After/ At this point the disappearance of the star, nobody was surprised.