

Put the verb TO BE in the correct form: AM, IS or ARE in the affirmative, interrogative and / or negative. You may need to add NOT.

1-..... Mary your best friend?

2-No, she

3-They (NEG) tired because they slept a lot.

4-I (NEG) the best student in my class.

5-John (AFF) the best one.

6-..... they good friends?

7-Yes, they

Turn the following sentences into the affirmative, interrogative and / or negative as in the example.

The desk is green.

Is the desk green?

The desk isn't green.

1-Mary is a teacher.

.....
.....

2-Are they tired? (tired= cansados)

.....
.....

3- The bridge isn't 50 metres long.

.....
.....

4- I am at school.

.....
.....
5- I'm not tall.
.....
.....

6- Is Mary your best friend?
.....
.....

7- Mary and Susan are classmates.
.....
.....

8- The door is open.
.....
.....

JV