

Idioms 1-6 Quiz

put yourself in my shoes	dressed to Kill
has something up his sleeve	knocked my socks off
on a shoestring budget	lost his shirt

	Idiom	Meaning
1		To lose all your money or personal possessions
2		To do something without a lot of money
3		To have a secret plan or idea that you don't tell other people about
4		To put yourself in someone else's place to see how it feels.
5		To really surprise someone or make them feel admiration
6		Dressed very well

7. That new movie really _____! I thought it was the best film I've ever seen.
8. Mario was really _____ on his date with Sarah. He wore a new suit, new shoes, and he even got a haircut.
9. Joe went to Vegas and _____. He lost $1000 gambling on slot machines.
10. You don't understand my life. _____. You might do the same thing I did if you were in my situation.
11. I think that man has _____. He's very secretive and I really don't trust him.
12. Jennifer's husband lost his restaurant job because of the pandemic. Now they're _____ because they only have one income, not two.