

LISTENING EXERCISE:

1. Tony needs a job. Listen to the conversation and decide which job he is applying for.

Job advertisement:

City Coffee, High Street - four days a week,
including weekends, 8:00-16:00.

Job advertisement:

BikeLove - sell bicycles and equipment to shops, 40+ hours/week, in our city centre office.

LANGUAGE POINT:

We use can + verb to talk about skills and abilities.

2. Listen again and complete the interview between the manager and Tony:

Tony: Hi! Are you the manager? My name's Tony. I'm here about the job.

Manager: Yes, I'm the manager. I have a few questions for you. ____ you make ____?

Tony: Oh yes, I ____ make coffee. I'm a barista.

Manager: Great! I guess you ____ ____ customers too.

Tony: That's right. I ____ ____ customers with a smile!

Manager: OK, very good. _____ you _____ English?

Tony: Yes, I _____ ...a bit.

Manager: Good. _____ you use a till?

Tony: _____, I _____. But I _____ learn!

Manager: I'm sure you _____. When _____ you _____?

3. Answer these questions:

1. What abilities/skills does he need for the job?

2. What can he do?

3. Does Tony get the job?