

HISTORY I QUIZ

A) CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION:

1. The Bubonic plague was caused by...a) mosquitoes b) rats c) fleas
2. This is not a symptom of the plague: a) black tongue b) sleepiness c) red spots
3. Most people....a) died b) recovered

B) WRITE YES NEXT TO THE CORRECT STATEMENT

1. Isabella of France and Roger Mortimer run away from England.
2. Isabella of France and Roger Mortimer plotted against Edward II to take control of the kingdom.....
3. In 1327 a controlled Parliament deposed Edward II in favour of her wife Isabella of France.....
4. In 1327 a controlled Parliament deposed Edward II in favour of his son Edward II.....
5. The king of France tried to control London in England.....
6. The king of France tried to control Gascony in Aquitaine and Flanders in Burgundy.....
7. The English products that were traded through those areas were corn, fine wine and woollen cloth.....
8. The English products that were traded through those areas were fine wine and cotton cloth.....
9. Edward III believed he should be the new king of France because Charles IV was his uncle.....
10. Edward III believed he should be the new king of France because he had defeated the French in battle.....

C) COMPLETE WITH THE MISSING WORDS:

1.and.....fought each other during the 100 Years War.
2. There were some periods of.....during the war.
3. By the end of the war England has lost all except

D) T OR F? CORRECT THE MISTAKEN STATEMENTS

1. Monarchs, barons and commoners achieved a more mature political community thanks to the collapse of Aristocracy.

>

2. The constant need of money for wars of the monarchy allowed the Parliament to get concessions.

>

4. The House of the Lords was composed by the great lords of the realm and the higher clergy.

>

5. The House of the Commons was composed by the peasants and the burgesses.

>

