

Read the passage and then answer the following questions:

Snowy Day

Sara looks outside and can't believe that it is snowing. She runs to tell her mother, Mrs. Smith. Together, they watch the snow falling from the clouds. They put on their coats and go outside. They start to build a snowman. Sara uses sticks for snowman's arms. Mrs. Smith uses rocks for the nose. Once the snowman is complete, they go sledding. Sara goes fast down the hill on the sled. Her mother does not go fast. They stay outside play in the snow. They are happy in the snowy day.
