

Rocks

3. Put these words into the correct place

Lithosphere

Living things

Minerals

Rocks

Mantle

Crust

The _____ is the solid, outer layer of the Earth. It is made up of the _____, which is solid rock, and the upper part of the _____, where it is hotter and the rock is more fluid.

_____ are made of one or more _____.

They can also contain the remains of _____ and fragments of other rocks.

4. Choose the right answer.

 _____ started as a liquid rock deep inside the Earth's crust, where it is very hot.

 _____ are eroded fragments of rock, sand, shell, and the remains of living things. They are deposited on the lowest areas of land and on the ocean floor.

 _____ started as sedimentary or igneous rock. This rock transformed by high pressure or heat.

3. Join each rock with its type.

Sedimentary rock

Marble

Intrusive Igneous rock

Granite

Extrusive Igneous rock

Limestone

Metamorphic rock

Basalt