a/an (× 3) | that | the (× 2)
when | where | which | who

Jamie: So, how was dinner last night? You went to the new Italian restaurant, didn't you?

Beatrice: We did. Mum, (1) _____ had been wanting to try it for ages, suggested it for her birthday dinner, so we thought it would be (2) _____ perfect place to go.

Jamie: What's it like?

Beatrice: It feels like you're in Italy. There are lots of photos of Italian cities and (3) _____ souvenirs. We were in a room (4) _____ they've got a small gondola hanging from the ceiling.

Jamie: That sounds cool. So what did you eat?

Beatrice: We ordered (5) _____ mixture of starters to share, like garlic bread and tomato salad. Then I had spaghetti with pesto.

Jamie: Of course you did. You always have the same!

Beatrice: It's my favourite! Mum had a chicken dish (6) _____ was tasty, and Dad tried the seafood pasta. But the best part was (7) _____ pudding. The birthday cake, (8) _____ we had ordered earlier, was delicious. It was (9) _____ chocolate cake with caramel cream in the middle. Mum was so surprised when she saw the cake! She didn't think Dad was that organised.

Jamie: Sounds like you had (10) _____ excellent meal.

6. Choose the correct words to complete the text.

Q: What food should I be eating if I want to be healthy?

I'm glad to hear that you want to be healthy. There are lots of (1) tasty / tasteless things you can eat that are good for you. First of all, you should (2) cool / cut down on things that are really bad for you, like (3) sweet / sour things and fast food. You don't have to (4) give / stop them up completely, but maybe you could have them once a week instead of every day. It's a bad idea to eat a lot of (5) frying / fried food. A healthier idea when you're cooking is to (6) blend / grill or boil it. Remember that too much salt is also bad for you – it's OK if the food is (7) spicy / mixed but don't make it too salty. It's even better to eat salad. You can (8) warm / chop it up into small pieces and eat it as a snack when you're hungry (much better than chocolate or biscuits). Oh, and don't forget fruit! A nice, (9) juicy / boiled apple or orange is a perfect healthy snack.

The other thing I would say is to eat slowly. That way, the food is still (10) satisfied / satisfying, but you won't put on weight.

Good luck!
