

Name: _____ Class: _____

Who lives where? Read and match.

Bison are large furry animals. They eat grass in the American prairie.

Deer are like forest horses. They have tall horns, called antlers. They eat grass and leaves.

Ferrets are small rodents that live in the American prairie. They are long, thin, and furry.

The desert death adder is a venomous Australian snake. It eats lizards in the desert.

The sea horse is not really a horse, it is a small fish that lives in the ocean.

The thorny devil is a small lizard that eats ants in the Australian desert.

The vampire squid is a small squid that lives deep under the ocean's surface.

The gray wolf can live many places, but it prefers forests. They hunt large animals, like deer, using teamwork.

Desert death adders and ferrets live in the desert.

fact | opinion

Ferrets and bison live in the American prairie.

fact | opinion