

Fossil Fuels: Uses of Fossil Fuels

1. is the most commonly used energy resource in the world.
2.the process of separating a liquid into its parts based on different boiling points.
3.is less dense and is found above petroleum deposits.
4. Coal is still the most abundant fossil fuel in the world. It is used less and less because it contains many
5. Coal is the solid form of fossil fuels. It is from under the ground.

Petroleum

Fractional distillation

Natural gas

chemical impurities

mined