

DATE: _____

1. Match the sentences.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| a. All the water on Earth | 1. is fresh water. |
| b. About 97% of the hydrosphere | 2. under the ground. |
| c. 3% of the Earth's water Fresh | 3. the air and in the clouds. |
| d. water is found in Fresh water | 4. is saltwater. |
| e. is also found | 5. is called the hydrosphere. |

2. Write the definition of these sentences.

- a. The process of solid water turning into liquid: _____
- b. The process of liquid water turning into gas: _____
- c. The name of the Earth's frozen areas: _____
- d. The process of water vapour turning into a liquid: _____
- e. The name of the constant changes of water: _____

3. Complete the sentences with the correct ending.

- a. Fresh water is the water we use for _____ and _____
- b. We find fresh water on the surface in _____ and in _____ and _____
- c. When water evaporates it _____
- d. The vapour that becomes water drops is _____
- e. When water heats up it _____

Read the definition and match.

- a. The water that is found under the ground. _____
- b. The process of water going through the soil. _____
- c. People in deserts use these to extract water. _____
- d. When water escapes to the surface it comes out like this. _____
- e. Springs turn into these. _____

1. Filtration
2. Spring
3. Groundwater
4. Rivers
5. Well

4. Fill in the missing words.

- Most of the Earth's water is _____ and a small amount is _____.
- We use _____ for washing and drinking and we find this water in the _____ and in the _____.
- _____ is when we heat solid water and it turns to _____.
- When _____ water _____ it turns into solid water or ice.
- When _____ evaporates into the _____ it loses its salt.

5. Write the word.

- Spain is surrounded by these: _____.
- This sea is in the east of Spain: _____.
- The river Pas flows into this sea: _____.
- This course of a river is wider than the others: _____.
- This is the name of rivers that join another river: _____.

6. Choose the correct option.

- The first / last part of the river flows through a narrow channel.
- The source of a river is usually in high / low land such as land / mountain sides.
- In the middle course of a river we can find tributaries / deltas.
- In the upper course the river flows through flat / steep land.
- The end of the river is the floodplain / mouth and the river flows into the watershed / tributary.

7. Write the watersheds, rivers and tributaries.

- _____ 1.1 _____
- _____ 2.1 _____ 2.2 _____
- _____ 3.1 _____
- _____ 4.1 _____
- _____ 5.1 _____ 5.2 _____
- _____ 6.1 _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____