

MODALS TEST

1. Match the modal sentences with the explanations of modals. Write numbers in the boxes next to the modals.

	a) If you are between 7 to 18 years, you have to go to school.	1) giving opinion/advice/suggestion saying what would be a good thing to do
	b) You should talk to her.	2) saying that something is around 30-60% possible to happen
	c) I can take care of my little sister.	3) similar to ' don't need to ', meaning you can if you want but it's not necessary
	d) It may rain later. Take an umbrella.	4) talking about skills, saying what a person is able to do
	e) You've been working all night. You must be feeling terrible!	5) talking about skills, saying what the person is not able to do
	f) Passengers mustn't stand when the plane is taking off.	6) giving opinion/advice/suggestion saying that what the person is doing is a bad thing to do
	g) You shouldn't eat so much junk food.	7) saying that something is prohibited, illegal or simply not allowed
	h) Rachel can't speak Japanese.	8) talking about obligations and rules
	i) We don't have to clean the hotel apartment before leaving.	9) telling that something is 100% sure to happen (in your opinion)

2. Use must/mustn't/have to/don't have to/should/shouldn't.

1. The test is tomorrow and you haven't even started revising. You _____ start now.
2. Pedestrians _____ walk on the bicycle lanes. They will get a fine if they do.
3. It's midnight and Omar is not back yet. His mum _____ be going crazy!
4. He _____ vacuum the floor anymore because they have bought a robot vacuum cleaner.
5. Your parents are probably worrying. You _____ call them.
6. You _____ take your sister's clothes without asking. It's not nice.

3. Use can or can't.

1. Tamara _____ speak Russian fluently because she lived in Novosibirsk when she was older.
2. Excuse me, I _____ reach that top shelf. Could you help me?

3. This sign  means you _____ park here.
4. Patients _____ take medicine together with alcohol. IT _____ BE DEADLY!
5. Only visitors above 1.55m height _____ ride this rollercoaster.
6. Mom, dad! _____ Will and Pennie stay at our place tonight?

4. Describe the weather in Tbilisi, Georgia. Use may in 2 sentences and might in the other 2.

MAY MIGHT	