

The gift of beauty

Have you noticed how the people with the most

(1).....looks seem to hang

IMPRESS

out together in high school? They may not be the ones with the most (2).....

PLEASE

personalities, but they are definitely the most

(3).....

CONFIDE

Studies have found that beautiful people are not just the most popular, but also more likely to get attention from others. Later on in life, they are more likely to earn more money, especially if they are also (4).....

AMBITION

Beauty is a (5).....thing. It seems that

MISTERY

what we feel is shaped by our (6)

EMOTION

attachments. For instance, those we love appear better-looking than strangers. Even so, there are also some objective criteria to bear in mind when we judge how (7)

ATTRACT

something or someone is. Scientists say it is linked to good health and that is one reason why nature has made us feel a need to seek

it out in others as well as in ourselves.

Those who have beauty are (8)for it,

THANK

whereas those who don't go to great lengths to find it.
