

Relative Pronouns and Clauses

I. Fill in the gaps with the correct relative pronoun. Select from: which, where, who, when.

1. Neil Armstrong is the astronaut _____ became the first to walk on the moon.
2. A surgeon is a doctor _____ performs surgeries.
3. July is _____ we'll have vacations.
4. J.K. Rowling is an author _____ wrote the popular saga of "Harry Potter".
5. A dictionary is a book _____ gives us the meaning of words.
6. Is there a restaurant around here _____ I can try sushi?
7. Shakespeare was the English author _____ wrote "Romeo and Juliet".
8. A hospital is a place _____ sick people go to receive medical attention.
9. New Zealand is a country _____ has more sheep than people.
10. Graduation is an event _____ you celebrate after finishing school.
11. Carnivores are animals _____ only eat meat.
12. A dentist is a person _____ checks your teeth.
13. August is _____ many Japanese return to their hometown for Obon.
14. To celebrate his birthday, John went to a restaurant _____ he could eat his favorite food.
15. My car is a Mercedes Benz, _____ is a very expensive brand.
16. I like movies _____ have happy endings

II. Choose the correct relative pronoun and write a relative clause to complete the idea.

17. I dislike people (who/that/where/which)

18. I like places (who/that/where/which)

19. I like animals (who/that/where/which)

III. An interesting story - Rewrite the story by joining the underlined clauses using who, which, that or where. You may need to erase some words.

(1) I was sitting in a café. I often visit it to get a drink after work. (2) I called the waiter. I know him quite well. I asked for a cup of coffee. (3) While I was waiting, I looked at the newspaper. It was lying on the table. (4-5) I started reading an article on the front page. It said: 'Police search intensely for woman named Catherine. She has been missing for two weeks.' (6) I looked at the photo. It showed a woman with dark curly hair. I recognized her at once. (/) This woman was my new neighbor. She had moved in just 2 weeks ago.