

Listening: using joining words (conjunctions)

Remember

- We use and to join two sentences which have similar ideas.

They are Muslims and they pray five times a day.

- We use but to join two sentences which have different ideas.

She works part-time as a secretary but she wants a full-time job.

- ❖ Now, listen to this audio. Click here to play it.

You will hear Mr Mahmood talking about himself and his family. Listen carefully to when he uses the 2 conjunctions and and but.

- ❖ Next listen to the audio again, use the pause button and type and or but in the spaces.

I come from Pakistan ..... now I live in the UK. It's very hard work ..... I enjoy it. My wife's name is Nasreen ..... she's a housewife. She enjoys making her own clothes ..... reading.

Kudzia was born in Pakistan ..... Maryam and Zahra were born here. We are Muslims ..... we pray five times a day. We have good neighbours ..... we all get on well together.

- ❖ Finally, listen again and check your work.