Prompt

If our school decided to get rid of all rules and give students complete freedom, what do you think would happen? Would students do their work? Would they take responsibility for the school and each other? Or would everything turn to chaos? Write a paragraph describing what this situation might look like.