

1 Report the requests and commands. Use asked or told. (Shakespeare)

0 Ms Price to Class 4A: 'Listen to me.'

Ms Price told Class 4A to listen to her.

1 Liam to Pete: 'Be quiet!'

.....

2. A police officer to Alfie: 'Don't ride your bike on the pavement.'

.....

3. Rosie to Fred: 'Don't worry about the test.'

.....

2 Write sentences using reported speech and the words in brackets.

0 'We're moving house next week.'

Tom said they were moving house the following week.

1 'My Maths homework is too difficult.'

Isabel said that her Maths homework too difficult.

2 'We're going to the youth club tonight.'

Charlie said they to the youth club that night.

3 'I saw a really good programme on TV last night.'

Terry said that she a really good programme on TV the night before.

4 'I've never been to the USA.'

Diana told me

5 'It will be sunny tomorrow'

The weatherman said

6 'I can't go to Ben's party.'

Kay told me

3 Report the questions.

0 Tom to Anna: 'Have you seen Sue?'

Tom asked Anna if she had seen Sue.

1 Anna to Jenny: 'Is Sue in the final?'

Anna asked Jenny

2 Ralph to Sue: 'What did you write about in your story?'

Ralph asked Sue

3 Sue to Anna: 'Will you come and watch me in the final?'

Sue asked Anna

4 Jenny to Ralph: 'What's the prize?'

Jenny asked Ralph

5 Ralph to Sue: 'How much do you want to win?'

Ralph asked Sue

6 Anna to Jenny: 'Did you enter the competition?'

Anna asked Jenny

4 Put the adjectives in the correct order.

0 It's a silk / beautiful / green blouse.

It's a beautiful green silk blouse.

1 It's a(n) American / old / interesting comic.

It's a(n) comic

2 They're plastic / round / large glasses.

They're glasses.

3 It's a(n) rubber / little / red ball.

It's ball.

4 It's a(n) new / Japanese / expensive TV.

It's a(n) TV.

5 It's a(n) egg / old / horrible sandwich.

It's a(n) egg.

6 They're woollen / comfortable / blue socks.

They're socks.