

Descriptions: VOCABULARY- WAYS OF SHINING

a) Read and Match (MIntelligence- Logical Mat.)

- : give out light, be bright.
She cleaned the glasses until they
- : give out heat and/or light without flames.
The embers were still.....
- : give out heat and light.
It's a fabulous day, the sun is!
- : give out a soft and bright light.
She had polished the ornaments so that they.....
- : give out a bright light.
The sun down on the beach.
- : shine brightly (for polished or wet surfaces).
Her eyes were with tears.
- : shine brightly with flashes of light- connected to metals
Her necklace was with diamonds./Swords
- : shine brightly with flashes of light.
The diamond in the light.
- : shine brightly with small flashes of light.
The gold rims of his glasses in the sun.
- : give out a sudden bright light.
The camera and dazzled the guests.
The lightning across the sky.
- : shine with a strong light in a way unpleasant to the eyes.
The sun out of the blue sky.
- : shine so brightly that it stops you from seeing properly for a short time.
The driver might have been by the headlights of the oncoming car.
- : give out a soft trembling light; on great amounts of water
The moonlight was on the sea.
- : give out a faint unsteady light.
We could see lights in the distance.
- : shine (or burn) unsteadily.
The lights for a moment.
- : shine unsteadily.
The stars were in the sky.

BEAM

BLAZE

DAZZLE

FLASH

FLICKER

GLARE

GLEAM

GLIMMER

GLINT

GLISTEN

GLITTER

GLOW

SHIMMER

SHINE

SPARKLE

TWINKLE

- b) Use the correct form of the ways of shining and complete the correct space in the description: (MIntelligence- Linguistic.)

Lightnings _____, in the dark night along with the heavy rain. To the right a candle's light _____ as it seems to quiver every time the roar of thunders invades the constant hissing of the wind. Still, the _____ fire makes the room cozy. Even the _____ lighthouse light seems friendly and inviting guiding ships back home. At these un even hours the _____ sunrays seem a forgotten memory. The ticking clock signals the passing of time- _____, night merges into day as the storm subdues. The paved street _____ and some dangling drops _____ . _____ and dance mischievously.

- c) Draw what you picture in the description and label it. Then take a photo and upload it. See Jamboard in classroom. (MIntelligence- Spatial.)