

READING CHECK

Correct nine more mistakes in the summary of this story.

Jill and Alan, a ~~student~~ ^{teacher}, go to Egypt on holiday. Jill buys a little brown wooden cat in a shop. Jill takes the cat to England and puts it with all her cats from different countries.

One day, she finds the Egyptian cat out of the house in the street. She feels afraid of the cat. She puts it in a bag in the bedroom. The next day, Jill tries to lose the cat. Later, someone phones Jill. Alan is in school and he isn't very well. Jill finds the cat again and takes it to Paris. She tells the man there about the old woman in the shop in Cairo. The man laughs at her. The next week, the cat goes back home to London. Now Jill has five cats and she is sad once more.

WORD WORK

1 Complete the sentences with the words inside the pyramids.

a When we went to Egypt, we saw a lot of old t o m b s.

b Jill bought the little wooden cat at an Egyptian _____.

c The _____ in Cairo has some interesting things to see.

d The Pyramids are very _____ buildings.

e Please put that paper in the _____!

f Egypt is an interesting _____.

g That wooden cat can move. It's _____!

h Jill wants to _____ the cat back to Egypt.

