

READING CHECK

1 Match the first and second parts of these sentences.

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| a Dan and Alex are driving across . . . | 1 they learn.                  |
| b They want to go . . .                 | 2 are very sad.                |
| c Their car stops . . .                 | 3 the country in Australia.    |
| d A young man . . .                     | 4 to Alice Springs.            |
| e The people in the small hotel . . .   | 5 was the name of the ghost.   |
| f Dan and Alex see . . .                | 6 takes them to the next town. |
| g The young man is dead . . .           | 7 the young man on TV.         |
| h John Sharp . . .                      | 8 miles from the next town.    |

2 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

- a Dan and Alex work in a big ~~school~~ <sup>office</sup> in London.
- b They are going across Australia by train.
- c John Sharp waited for help for two days.
- d When the young man leaves Dan and Alex, he says 'Happy Birthday!'
- e At night in the small hotel, someone is laughing.
- f The hotel in Alice Springs is worse than the hotel in Little Creek.
- g Somebody found John Sharp's dog last night.

