UNIT 6- Going to: time expressions

We use "going to" to talk about future plans.

We use time expressions to indicate WHEN we are going to do the activities.

1. Look at the time expressions in the following examples:

Today is August 16th. I am going to go swimming tomorrow (August 17th).

Today is the 9th day of the month. We are going to go on holidays next week.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	Today (Hoy)

Today is Monday. They are going to go surfing on Thursday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The school finishes at 17:00. He is going to play football after school.

Saturday
Sunday

They are going to go water-skiing at the weekend.

2. Listen and choose the correct time expression.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Look at the calendar. Complete the sentences with the positive or negative form of going to. Look at the examples.

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY	SUNDAY
Today

Example 1: We are going to play next week.

Example 2: He isn't going to read a book tomorrow.

They ___ going to go on holidays at the weekend.

He ___ going to ride his bike next week.

They ___ going to go surfing on Friday.

We ___ going to dance tomorrow.

They ___ going to play football on Wednesday.

We ____ going to go shopping at the weekend.

He ___ going to ride a horse next week.

They ____ going to swim on Friday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS