A trip to London

When Oksana was getting ready to travel to London last year, friends told her to get an Oyster card, which is a personal electronic ticket. The Oyster card makes travelling in London cheaper, easier and faster. How can you get ? You can simply buy the card at any station, ticket shops, or online. Once you've bought it, it's . So, Oksana bought at the underground station, from a ticket machine. Then she just put it on a yellow card reader at the start of her journey and off she went! It's just perfect if want to avoid worrying about tickets.
