

Expressing Purpose

 B. Rewrite these sentences using TO INFINITIVE, IN ORDER TO or SO THAT and the correct structures.

1. Peter is learning English. He wants to study in an English-speaking country next year. (SO THAT)

2. Marco is visiting Rome in June. He wishes to visit his old friends. (IN ORDER TO)

3. You should practise linking words a lot. It will develop your English skills. (TO INFINITIVE)

4. I want to visit St Martin island this winter. I love experiencing crystal clear water. (TO INFINITIVE)

5. The government is planning to ease lockdown. It wants to revive business. (IN ORDER TO)

6. Everybody should have a balanced diet. It will ensure your health. (TO INFINITIVE)

7. People were staying home during lockdown. They wanted to stay safe. (IN ORDER TO)

8. Teachers are developing worksheet. They want to facilitate the best education. (SO THAT)

9. My son wishes to buy some toys. He wants to spend time in playing. (TO INFINITIVE)

10. You might have a nappy for a while. It will reduce your fatigue. (IN ORDER TO)

11. Some students work hard. They need to develop a brilliant career. (TO INFINITIVE)

12. I have chosen science subjects. I dream to be a scientist in the future. (SO THAT)
