Dear Megan,

My visit to Jacksonville is coming to an end.

Yesterday was my last day at Jacksonville high school. I'm going back home in a week. I'm sad to leave because American people was nice to me.

Two weeks ago, I was in Orlando. The hotel was near all the stores and it was very comfortable. The weather was really nice. And last Saturday, James and I visited the Sea World in Orlando. We were there all day! It was fantastic!

Last year I was in my country and I never thought this experience would change my life.

What's new with you? Write soon.

Love, Lucía
