WAS or WERE

When do we use...WAS or WERE? (x7)
We use WAS for something singular;
we use WERE for a plural.
Singular means one;
plural means more than one.

I _____, we _____, she _____, you _____, he _____,

they _____, the king _____, the mice _____, they _____,

my dog _____, the cats _____, my sister _____, your friends

_____, the house _____, his shoes _____, the queen _____.

We use WERE with YOU, because YOU can be plural or singular (X2).

You _____ very cheeky, you naughty dogs. You _____ amazing my little cat. You _____ all in trouble, boys and girls. You _____ very beautiful your majesty.

The footballers _____, the window _____, her brothers _____,

the carrot _____, you _____, my bag _____, the King and queen _____, the mouse _____, my pencil _____, the chairs

_____, your drink _____, the clocks _____, an ant _____,

the cars _____, the swimming pool _____, my thoughts _____.